

Tu-kay & Ryan are a multi award winning acoustic duo blurring the lines between folk, Americana and roots music.

They are known for lush harmonies and heartfelt lyrics in songs that encourage a positive outlook on life, even when things may be tough. They are optimists at heart and believe there is always a light at the end of the tunnel, no matter how small or distant it may seem.

REVIEWS

COMPANION (ALBUM)

"It's a masterclass in perfect, succinct songwriting, that many could learn from"

Craig Mapstone – TIWN Media

"Companion is a fantastic debut album from Tu-kay & Ryan and one they should be very proud of. The songs feel very personal, always wearing their hearts on their sleeves, and is delivered in a way that is both clever and creative, while showcasing their musical ability." Stuart

Green – FATEA Magazine

"In fact, Companion is exactly that, an ally in uncertain times, a challenge to self doubt, and a light just before the dawn. From the opening chime and questioning refrain of All That I Am to the reassuring lullaby of A Little Time, Tu-kay & Ryan have answers and comfort in equal measures."

Chris Keniger – Live at Thornsett Road
